Charlotte was the only child of Gaston Harbour and Katherine Kersh. She was born January 19, 1944, in Amarillo during WW II when Gaston worked at Pantex. The family moved to Shamrock, Texas in 1946. She was active in the First Baptist Church of Shamrock where she played the piano and organ. While in high school, Charlotte was involved in many activities such as Latin

Club, Future Teachers of America, Speech, Choir, Drama, Rainbow Girls, and later graduated in 1962.

After high school, Charlotte came to Waco, Texas to attend Baylor University. That fall, she had a blind date with an Aggie named David Moody. It was love at first sight. He later transferred to Baylor, and they were married in Waco on March 19, 1965 at Columbus Avenue Baptist Church.

She received her B.A. degree in elementary education in 1967.

Charlotte and David manufactured trailers through their company DEMCO for sixteen years.

After selling the corporation in 1982, David pursued his interests in various farming and ranching entities, and Charlotte began a new twenty-three-year career as a Financial Aid Counselor for Baylor University where she loved ministering to students. Charlotte's other passion was serving as co-director of the preschool choir at Columbus Avenue teaching music and sharing Jesus with children for almost two decades.

Upon retiring, she moved to the family ranch in Piedmont, Texas where she enjoyed her remaining years gardening, collecting glass, searching for antiques, and researching her family ancestry. Charlotte was very active in the First Baptist Church of Bryan, the Navasota Garden Club where she served as President, Daughters of the American Revolution where she served as 2nd Vice Regent, Two Rivers Historical Society, and the Order of the Eastern Star.

Charlotte was preceded in death by her husband, David Evans Moody in 2006, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Harbour of Shamrock, Texas.

She is survived by her daughter, Janet Moody Lamb and spouse Rob Lamb of Anderson, Texas;

her son Michael Moody of Anderson, Texas; and her daughter Laura Moody Miller and spouse

Cody Miller of Robinson, Texas. Her grandchildren: Analeigh Lamb and Alexander Lamb, both of Anderson, Texas; Caleb Miller and Brooklyn Miller, both of Robinson, Texas.

“ To Janet, Michael, Laura and your families:

I grew up one block from your Mom in Shamrock. We went through grade school, junior high and high school together. We were always doing things together and particularly when it involved your grandmother.

I was in so many one-act plays that your grandmother produced. Your Mom was the greatest, never wavering in her commitment to anything she got involved in. I know you all will miss her greatly. I always looked forward to seeing her at high school reunions whenever she could make it.

God has a job for her in heaven!

“ I met Charlotte through the Navasota Garden Club, when I was a member. She seemed to me to be the epitome of a Texas Woman: strong in her beliefs, kind & friendly, always with a warm smile and a rock you could count on. Deepest condolences to her family and friends.

“ I have many fond memories with the Moody family and Charlotte, aka Momma Moody. She was absolutely lovely and was someone I always enjoyed spending time with. She will be greatly missed.

Although I can't be there for the family, you are in my thoughts. Celebrate the beautiful and splendid woman that was Charlotte and her life.

With my deepest sympathy, Rebecca Wells Jessup
